

Tartar Teen Talk

By Pam Flemming

Class elections are well underway at Torrance High and Aud Calls will be held tomorrow for the purpose of hearing campaign speeches. ASB Vice President, Judi Rynhart, reports 40 Tartars filed petitions for class offices.

Voting will take place Friday. Results of polling will be announced by Student Council shortly after 3 p.m.

CONGRATULATIONS to Sharon Coffee, Marilyn Blankenship, Judi Rynhart, Candy Marquand, Sue Meyer, Sandrajane Welsh, Kathy MacDonald, Valerie Gustavson. These junior girls have become members of Tartar Ladies. The service organizations conducted a membership campaign for two weeks prior to selection.

Jackie Megow, Tartar Lady Queen, and her cabinet have announced that the installation of Tartar Lady officers will be held Jan. 21.

Newly elected officers are: Pam Flemming, queen; Rebecca Goldstein, first lady; Jackie Megow, secretary; Rosemary Galanda, treasurer; Claudia Yates, historian-reporter; and Dora Wahl, sergeant-at-arms.

Tartar Knights are also accepting new members this semester. Applications may be obtained from Mr. Hulse, Tartar Knight, sponsor. Membership is open to junior boys with a 2.6 grade average or better.

AVIATION HIGH School hosted the year's second Pioneer League Forum Jan. 20.

Topics included: "How Student Council can best serve its purposes," "Values and needed improvements of forums," and "How student council encourages scholarship and academic interest in the student body."

Discussion groups met first, led by a chairman from one of the participating schools. Later, the chairmen served on a panel, which gave conclusions of the various groups.

VICTORY over Lawndale last Friday night left the varsity basketball team undefeated and first in the league! Final score was 78-53.

Action for the hoped-for seventh victory will take place in the Lennox gym this Friday. Game time is 8 p.m. See you next week!

Students to Entertain With Japanese Dances

Students of the Chitose Japanese Dancing School will present traditional dances of Japanese heritage at the El Camino College Faculty Wives Club tomorrow, according to Mrs. Joseph Dzida, vice president of the club.

Featured in the program will be Chioko and Shuzuko Yamane, Kumi and Koko Nishi and Hiroko Kawasaki, who will perform the Japanese tea ceremony.

The school, which operates under the direction of the Gardena Parks and Recreation Department, meets in the Gardena Community Center and is open to anyone five years of age or over. Mrs. Chitose Tamaye is the instructor.

Mrs. Lloyd L. Brown, an El Camino faculty wife, is in charge of refreshments for the 8 p.m. meeting in the fireside room of the Student Activities Building. She will be assisted by Mes. Richard W. Dickinson, Norman Kadison, W. A. Kamrath and Jack L. Wolf.

Armed Forces
